

WE GET A BLIZZARD
THE EXPERT SAYS.

MILWAUKEE WEATHER BUREAU'S GLOOMY FORECAST.

West Has Had the Howling Terror for the Last Four Days—Six Feet of Snow Has Fallen In Twenty-Four Hours Out Beyond Omaha.

MILWAUKEE, March 22.—The western blizzard is destined to play a three nights' stand in Wisconsin, beginning at once. Snow and colder is the forecast sent out by Observer Moore today.

OMAHA, March 22.—The blizzard now prevailing in the northwest is playing havoc with the moving of trains on the Burlington system, the telegrams received at headquarters indicating that from Seneca, Neb., to Sheridan, Wyo., a storm of uncommonly large proportions was raging. At Gillette and Sheridan it is said the cuts are jammed with snow to such an extent that all trains have been held at division points. From telegrams received from points all over the Burlington system it is learned that light snows and rains are prevailing and the thermometer is running down. The Union Pacific has not been so hard hit as the Burlington, although telegrams announce that six feet of snow has fallen in the last forty-eight hours west of Pine Bluffs, the blizzard extending from Lexington westward. So general has been the fall of snow between North Platte and Cheyenne that the rotary plows were ordered out and the work of clearing the tracks has been commenced.

The blizzard is moving steadily toward the Missouri river. Dispatches from points in the interior indicate that it has traveled eastward about 150 miles in twenty-four hours. The farmers welcome the snow, as the ground in many places has been too hard to work. There will be but little damage to winter wheat, as the snow is deep enough to prevent the ground from freezing.

CHADRON, Neb., March 22.—The heaviest snowstorm since March, 1878, broke over this region yesterday. A foot of snow has fallen, and, with a high north wind, has drifted badly. Cattle and sheep on the ranges will suffer terribly and the loss will be very heavy. No lives have been lost as far as heard, but business is nearly suspended. The Elkhorn and Burlington railroads have not run any trains today. The latter has abandoned its trains and the former has four passenger trains stuck in the snow, two between here and Hay Springs, and two between Lusk and Douglass, Wyo.

ALL WYOMING IN THE BLIZZARD

Stockmen Fear a Great Loss of Cattle on the Ranges.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 22.—A blizzard has raged throughout Wyoming the past thirty-six hours, but the signal service indications are that it will abate today. A high wind has prevailed since the storm began, causing the snow to drift badly. All railroad traffic is practically suspended for a distance of 200 miles east of Cheyenne. Stockmen are fearful that there will be a heavy loss of stock on the ranges, especially in the northern portion of the state, where the winter has been unusually severe and the feed very scarce.

BUFFALO, Wyo., March 22.—The storm in northern Wyoming is one of the worst blizzards in the history of that section. It is feared that the ranges will be covered with cattle succumbing to the exposure of the blizzard, and the sheep owners are almost in despair. There are rumors of death by exposure, but these can neither be verified nor contradicted, as it is next to impossible to take any action to find out the truth. Reports from the neighboring ranches, meagerly as they come in, indicate that the property loss will be great. Thousands of cattle are known to be off their usual winter quarters and are away from shelter of any kind. It will be impossible to save them from almost total destruction unless the blizzard breaks soon.

NEWCASTLE, Wyo., March 22.—The worst storm of the winter is raging throughout northern Wyoming. Trains are blocked. Stock will suffer greatly.

DENVER, March 22.—The snow storm continues, accompanied by a light wind. The temperature has fallen from 10 to 26 degrees throughout the west, but in this city is not much below the freezing point. The storm is general throughout the state. Railway traffic is not interrupted in Colorado.

Four Feet of Snow at Deadwood.

DEADWOOD, S. D., March 22.—A snowstorm set in here Monday night that bids fair to rival the memorable storm of March 7, 8 and 9, 1878, when it fell six feet on the level. It is now about four feet deep and still coming down. The loss to cattlemen will be great, as the animals are weak and will drift with the storm until they perish. All the trains are abandoned on the Burlington & Missouri railway west of Edgemont. Should this snow go off with a warm rain floods and innumerable losses will be the consequence.

ST. PAUL, March 22.—The Dakotas report a blizzard, while in this neighborhood a hard rain was made worse by a heavy wind.

DULUTH, Minn., March 22.—A March blizzard set in yesterday, with a wind of forty miles velocity and rain, which has turned to a drifting, blinding snow, that will make serious trouble for the transportation companies if it continues long. Damage to the extent of several thousand dollars has already been done.

Arkansas Is Under Water.

LITTLE ROCK, March 22.—South central Arkansas is being visited by the largest flood in its history and the whole state is approaching the condition of an inland ocean. Railway communication since Monday has been almost entirely cut off from the south to Texarkana.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 22.—Not a wheel has been moved on the Hot Springs railroad yet. The flood has receded somewhat, as the water is only two feet over the tracks of the Hot Springs railroad at Antonio creek. A farmer says the destruction of farm property along the river will be very great, and thousands of dollars' worth of live stock have been destroyed. Salina river is reported rising an inch an hour.

Railroads Are Heavy Sufferers.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 22.—The whole country west of the Mississippi has been flooded and bridges swept away. The damage will run up into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. The St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern and the St. Louis & Southwestern have fared worse than any of the other railroads. Over fifty miles of Iron Mountain tracks are under water at different points and on some of the divisions both passenger and freight trains have been abandoned until the flood subsides. The St. Francis river is also on the rampage and great damage has been done along its banks.

Fearful Storm in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 22.—A northeast gale raged along the coast last night and caused immense damage here, many houses being blown down and others unroofed. Many villages were devastated and a large section of the railway line was flooded. The wires are down and it is impossible to learn the extent of the damage.

LIQUOR BILL PASSED.

Iowa House of Representatives Votes for a $600 License Fee.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 22.—The house yesterday passed the original liquor bill by a vote of 53 to 45, after voting down a motion to substitute the democratic license measure. The bill provides for a tax of $600 on the property of persons carrying on the business of selling liquors and for the payment of the tax quarterly in advance in localities where 65 per cent of the voters, by petition, have signified their willingness to allow such payment. The payment of the tax is to be a bar to prosecution under the prohibition law. The sales of liquor are not legalized and a failure to pay the tax brings down all the present penalties for violation. No sales are to be made on Sundays and 5 a. m. Sales to minors, drunkards or graduates of Keeley institutes are prohibited. No music, games, tables or attractions will be allowed and no female persons shall be employed around places where liquor is sold.

TO BE BURIED IN HUNGARY.

Kossuth's Body Will Be Taken to His Native Land—Sorrow at Buda Pesth.

TURIN, March 22.—A guard of honor from an early hour has been drawn up in front of the house where the remains of Kossuth are resting. Messages continue to arrive from all parts of the world. The first message of sympathy received was from the municipal authorities of the city of Buda Pesth. Premier Crispien sent a message by telegraph expressing sorrow at the death of the exiled Hungarian and adding: "The memory of Kossuth will rest eternally with lovers of liberty."

The remains will be kept here until the bodies of his wife and daughter are exhumed and all the preparations for the funeral in Hungary have been completed. The dead man's sons will accompany the bodies to Buda-Pesth.

Prendergast to Die.

OTTAWA, Ill., March 22.—The Illinois Supreme court has refused to grant a supersedeas in the case of Patrick Eugene Prendergast, the murderer of Carter Harrison, who is sentenced to be hanged Friday.

All that can now interfere between Prendergast and death on Good Friday is the governor's respite, and the latter is absent from the state.

Form an Anti-Lynching League.

CHICAGO, March 22.—An anti-lynching league was formed at a gathering of prominent colored men here yesterday. Fred Douglas was elected honorary president. The object of the league is to put a stop, as far as lies in its power, to the frequent lynching of colored men in the south. President Cleveland will be asked to lend his moral support.

Bat Shea Held for Murder.

TROY, March 22.—The coroner's jury in the case of Robert Ross, who was killed in the riot at the polls on election day, returned a verdict that the murder was committed by Bartholomew Shea.

Hoosiers Drive Out Chicago Beef.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 22.—By a united effort among such Indiana cities as Richmond, Kokomo, Terre Haute and Indianapolis Chicago dressed beef has been practically driven out of the state.

Senator Colquitt's Illness.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Senator Colquitt was no better yesterday

PANIC IN THE FLAMES
AT EVANSTON.

SCHOOL CHILDREN THREATENED WITH DEATH.

Several Children Seriously Hurt In a Fire In a Chicago Suburb—Pupils Jump From Windows—Brave Work of Teachers and Older Pupils.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Fire destroyed the South Evanston public school at 10:30 o'clock yesterday and in the panic that seized the terror-stricken pupils and teachers several children were badly injured. Five hundred boys and girls were in the building at the time and it was only by rare good fortune that scores of them were not burned or trampled to death in the mad rush for the doors. In the excitement following the discovery of the fire a crowd of pupils ran up to the top floor in a wild endeavor to flee from the flames and smoke, and were there hemmed in. Several of them jumped from the window ledges and were hurt. They are: NEWELL SIMMONS, head cut and shoulder dislocated.

ELLA SAGERT, leg broken.

PERCY BRADLEY, hip dislocated and internal injuries.

ESTHER BEERDEN, jumped from third-story window; head and shoulders injured.

LUCY HUSTON, found unconscious on the third floor; burned about head and face.

ANDERSON, CARRIE, aged 8 years, face and hands burned.

GREGORY, LEE, aged 13 years, bruised by jumping from third-story window.

JOHNSON, JENNIE, aged 12 years, unconscious from inhaling smoke, face and hands badly burned.

JOHNSON, FRANK, fireman, hand cut by broken glass.

MOORE, AMY, aged 12 years, face and hands burned.

SIMMONS, NOEL, aged 13 years, head and shoulders bruised by jumping from third story.

SAMUEL, MACK, chest hurt by catching the children who jumped.

The burning building was surrounded by a crowd of agonized men and women whose children were in danger and who added to the intense excitement by striving to break through the police lines to rescue the imprisoned little ones. The building was three and a half stories in height. Miss Foster, a teacher in a lower grade, discovered the fire just as the children were preparing to go out for recess. She had gone to a closet for her hat, and had no sooner opened the door than flames burst into the room with a roar. The children were paralyzed with fear for an instant, and made no effort to escape. Then they fell to screaming and all rushed to the doors. Miss Foster ran hastily upstairs to the office of F. W. Nichols, the principal, and the panic-stricken pupils followed her blind with fright.

There were 200 pupils on the first floor. Most of them ran out to the yard. Some of the last to reach the door became terrorized at the sight of the flames raging at their backs and rushed upstairs. Those on the second and third floors were coming down in charge of the teachers, who tried to preserve order. Some of the pupils ran to the windows in the hallway on the third floor and raised them. People in the yard below shouted to them to remain quiet, but several clambered out on the ledges, prepared to jump.

The scene about the burning building was appalling. The firemen were endeavoring to lift ladders to the windows, while the parents in the yard and streets about the schoolhouse were shouting to the children clinging to the windows to hang on or go back and descend the stairs. Finally a boy stood up in a third-story window and jumped to the ground, forty feet below. It was Newell Simmons. He fell on his shoulders and was picked up senseless. Almost immediately afterward Esther Burden leaped from an adjacent window on the same floor. The sagging girl struck squarely on her feet and sank to the ground with a shriek of pain. Physicians say that her right leg is broken and that she may have sustained serious internal injuries.

The crowd in the yard watched the children in the building with the most painful interest. Parents rushed about frantically asking if their children were safe and inquiring of teachers if they had seen their missing boys or girls.

The fire made quick work of the school house. The building is a total loss. It was erected in 1881, improved in 1889, and was valued at $50,000. It contained ten rooms and accommodated over 500 pupils. Nobody knows what caused the fire. The fire marshal is making an investigation.

The fire caused a great sensation in the suburb. Men whose children attended the school locked their shops when they heard of the fire and ran to the scene to render assistance. Women came hurrying from the adjoining houses and a crowd of 5,000 people had gathered before the fire had burned half an hour. The first floor was totally destroyed within fifteen minutes after the discovery of the fire, but fortunately the stairway from the second and third stories held firm until the pupils seated there had descended to the yard.

Will Settle the Iron Scale.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 22.—The convention of the delegates representing members of the Amalgamated association of the Sixth district did not adjourn until nearly daylight this morning. Their proceedings are kept secret, but it is possible that the association's conference committee will convene here next week.

SENATORS HONOR
LOUIS KOSSUTH

RESOLUTION OFFERED BY HOAR IS ADOPTED.

Tariff Bill Causes Delay in the Upper House—Prominent Senators Think It Will Pass Without Material Change—Bland Bill Not Yet Signed by the President.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—In the senate today a resolution offered by Hoar, expressing regret on the death of Kossuth and tendering the family the condolence of the entire senate was adopted. Several senators are anxious to get action on bills in which they are interested or which they have in charge before the tariff bill is brought up and made the unfinished business of that body. It is understood that while the tariff bill is being considered in the senate the house will probably dispose of all the appropriation bills, and it is likely that most of them will be reported back and ready for consideration in the senate before the tariff bill is disposed of. These bills, like the tariff bill, will have the right of way and will be liable to shut out all other measures, except such as are unobjectionable. If there should be any disposition on the part of the opponents of the tariff bill to prolong the discussion the length of session will be further increased. It is well known, however, that as long as the finance committee continues to push the bill it will be next to impossible to transact other business and there is a rush to get through with pending legislation. It is probable that next Thursday will be the last time the senate will adjourn over until Monday until the tariff bill is disposed of.

Senator Brice of Ohio, who was the chief mover for the caucus of the democratic senators, thinks the tariff bill as reported from the committee will pass the senate, but that the senate amendments will be materially changed in the house and in conference before the bill is finally agreed upon.

Senator Gorman of Maryland said that he thought with probably a few small changes the bill would be likely to pass, with the support of all the democrats of the senate. He thought that it had been changed, as he understood it, in such a way as had made it much more satisfactory than it was when first presented.

NEW CHINESE TREATY.

Concessions to Be Granted to Subjects of the Flowery Kingdom.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The senate committee on foreign relations has been considering an important Chinese treaty, negotiated by the new Chinese minister and Secretary Gresham. It is said that it does not meet with the approval of some of the senators who are members of the foreign relations committee. As negotiated, the treaty practically sets aside and supersedes the Scott exclusion act and the recently enacted Geary law. It is an immigration treaty and provides for the admittance of Chinese immigrants under restrictions. It also has for its object the protection of Chinese already in this country. While it does not repeal the Geary law, it is said to render it nugatory in many particulars.

In return for concessions granted by this country to better protect the Chinese people and to lessen the hardships which it is claimed they suffer by reason of the Geary law, the Chinese government is to take greater precautions to prevent the coming of Chinese laborers to this country. Those who are in favor of the treaty think it is absolutely necessary in order to continue the present friendly neutral relations with China, and it is pointed out that the commerce between this country and China has grown to large proportions and large sums of American money have been invested in the Pacific commerce, all of which depends largely upon continued friendly relations with the Chinese government.

Still Produces Too Much Revenue.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The estimate of the amount of revenue which the tariff bill reported to the senate will probably show is that the total will be about $381,000,000. This is a reduction of between $13,000,000 and $14,000,000 from the estimates in the first bill reported to the committee. As the bill stands, if the estimate is correct, it will produce at least $30,000,000 of revenue that will not be needed.

Expect a Veto.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Wall street is certain the President will veto the seigniorage bill. Democratic leaders are certain that he will sign it, and between these two certainties there was calm at the White House yesterday. Messrs. Tracey, Dunphy and other anti-silver congressmen say they believe the bill will be vetoed. The President has until the 30th to decide what he shall do with the bill.

Against Fraud in Pension Cases.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The house committee on invalid pensions is devoting some attention to a bill which makes it unlawful for any person to willfully communicate or cause to be communicated to the United States officials performing duties connected with pensions, any false statement with intent to thereby defeat or suspend the granting or payment of a pension.

HAS NOT PAID RHODES.

Third Day of the Cross-Examination of Miss Pollard.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Madeline Pollard's face showed lines of worry and evidences that she had passed a sleepless night when she appeared in the Circuit court yesterday morning. Col. Breckinridge and his attorney, Ben Butterworth, did not put in an appearance till the last minute. The two gray heads of the defendant and his leading lawyer were bent together in a brief consultation as Miss Pollard walked around to the witness stand. Then Mr. Butterworth began by inquiring if Miss Pollard had the contract with James Rhodes, to which she replied that the contract had been given to Rhodes. There never had been a settlement, but in 1885 she had given him a note for three times the amount he had advanced for her schooling.

"I had never paid Mr. Rhodes, because I never had any money to pay anybody anything," she said.

After some other unimportant testimony the plaintiff's counsel rested their case, and Col. John T. Shelby, the Lexington (Ky.) law partner of Col. Breckinridge, faced the jury to outline the defense. The line of defense will be that Miss Pollard, at the time she was first seduced by Col. Breckinridge, was at least 20 or 21 years of age and that she had been intimate with Mr. Rhodes, who was at that time paying for her schooling. Miss Pollard is considered to have made out a very strong case, and if the verdict is not in her favor she has at least succeeded in blasting the public life of Col. Breckinridge.

COXEY STILL SERENE.

Confident He Will Have an Immense Following to Washington.

MASSILLON, Ohio, March 22.—Mr. Coxey left for Pittsburg yesterday to look after some private business, but will return today. Coxey says:

"We have assurance in writing that there will be at least 3,000 recruits in Massillon Sunday morning, and enlistments are reported by every mail. I should say, conservatively speaking, that we will have 10,000 people here and there will certainly be as many spectators."

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 22.—J. S. Coxey arrived in Pittsburg yesterday to make some arrangements for the passage of his command through Allegheny county. What these arrangements are he refused to say.

TO URGE IRRIGATION.

Convention of the Inter-State Association Opens at Omaha.

OMAHA, March 22.—The second general convention of the Inter-State Irrigation association met yesterday, there being present over 150 delegates from the six states represented in the association. It is the sentiment of the convention that a delegation be appointed to go to Washington and urge upon the members of congress the advisability of passing the bill introduced by Senator Allen of Nebraska providing for an appropriation to complete a geological survey of the arid plains.

Day's Work of the Senators.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The critical condition of Senator Colquitt of Georgia was the inspiration of the prayer of Senate Chaplain Milburn yesterday. The vice president being absent, Mr. Harris, the president pro tem, occupied the chair and the senate promptly settled down to routine business and a number of unimportant bills were taken from the calendar and passed.

Will Not Call on Cleveland.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The chamber of commerce committee will not go to Washington to urge the President to veto the seigniorage bill. A telegram has been received from Private Secretary Thurber advising the committee to stay away from Washington.

Condition of Illinois Banks.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The 193 banks of Illinois, exclusive of Chicago, held on Feb. 28, 36.66 per cent of reserve; bonds and discounts, $41,909,000; lawful money reserve, $5,342,000; surplus fund, $56,301,000, and individual deposits, $40,493,000.

Missouri Road's Power House Burns.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 22.—The power house of the Missouri Railroad company was almost totally destroyed by fire which broke out at midnight last night. It is believed to have been struck by lightning, as it began during a severe electrical storm. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Miss Pollard May Write a Book.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 22.—It is said that if Miss Pollard loses the suit for breach of promise she will write a book giving all the unfortunate events of her life and a graphic account of her infatuation and relations for ten years with Breckinridge.

Robbed the Station at Caspar, Wyo.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 22.—A. C. Arnold has been arrested at Vermilion, S. D., on the charge of robbing the station at Caspar, Wyo., Feb. 28. He has confessed his crime and will be taken to Wyoming without a requisition.

France's New Minister.

PARIS, March 22.—As the result of an interview with Senator Boulanger-Bernet, the new minister of the colonies, Figaro says the new ministry will reorganize the internal administration of the colonies, but there will be no change in their political administration.

TWO NEW STRIKES
OVER LOW WAGES

SIX HUNDRED MEN OUT IN CHICAGO.

Force At Crane's Elevator Works Refuse to Accept a Ten Per Cent Reduction—All the Men On the Tuxedo Railway Go Out to Support Comrades.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Six hundred employees of the Crane Manufacturing Co. struck this morning because of a reduction of ten per cent.

TUXEDO, N. J. March 22.—All the men on the Tuxedo electric street railway struck this morning because four men were discharged without cause.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 22.—N. Miller, chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and Chicago and Indiana Coal road, says the new schedule of wages for engineers and firemen announced to take effect provides for more than a 10 per cent reduction, regardless of the new rule covering overtime. There is an overwhelming feeling among the employees against accepting the cut.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 22.—Two hundred colored wharfmen, employed on the Upper and Lower Cumberland river steamboats, are on a strike for an increase of wages from 15 to 20 cents per hour.

WHITEHALL, Mich., March 22.—Staples & Covell's mill, the most extensive on White Lake, started up yesterday after being idle since last July.

SILVER MEN AT DES MOINES.

Colorado, Minnesota and Missouri Delegates Fail to Arrive.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 22.—The inter-state silver convention was called to order yesterday morning. The Colorado, Minnesota and Missouri delegates did not arrive in time for the meetings yesterday but will be here today. Ignatius Donnelly will lead the Minnesota delegates. From the south came Col. P. G. Bowman and J. H. Skaggs of Birmingham and Capt. Kolb of Alabama. Ohio is represented by Gen. A. J. Warner. Gen. Warner made a lengthy speech in which he advocated coinage on the ratio of 16 to 1. The main address was by ex-Senate Senator Folter, who said the country was ruled by the English influences of Wall street. Committees were appointed and instructed to report today. The local silver men are much interested in the meeting.

No Settlement in Coast Wheat Pool.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 22.—The dispute between the members of the produce exchange and the pool striving to corner wheat is still unsettled. A general meeting of the exchange is to be held today to decide whether or not McGlaughlin & Co. shall be made to comply with the recent rulings of the directors. The ruling reduced the marginal value of May wheat from $1.10½ to $1.05, making it easy for the pool to put up more margin money on its dealings, which amounts to over 30,000 cents. Only a few sales of May wheat were made yesterday, mostly at $1.11½.

Sheriff Killed Making Arrests.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 22.—A triple tragedy occurred in Eutaw, Green county. E. L. Hannigan, sheriff of that county, attempted to arrest John Russell and a man named Reid, two desperate characters who were wanted by the authorities of Green county. The men resisted arrest and opened fire on Hannigan, who returned it. Firing was kept up for several seconds, and when it ceased Russell and Reid were lying dead and the sheriff received a wound from which he died.

Convention of Wisconsin Lumbermen.

MADISON, Wis., March 22.—The fourth annual convention of the Wisconsin Retail Lumber Dealers' association closed here yesterday. A committee was appointed to prepare a proper law to meet lumbermen's desires as to more advantageous insurance. The committee appointed will meet before the next annual session of the association, when the matter will come up again. H. H. Hemenway of Tomah was re-elected president of the association and Theodore Huber of Watertown, treasurer.

Hurley Miners Are Sick.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 22.—A letter has been received from W. J. Shumway, chairman of the Hurley relief committee, saying that there is a great deal of sickness among the miners as the result of lack of proper food during the winter and with the advent of spring it is expected that the sickness will increase. The report as to the number of men employed has been greatly exaggerated. Only a few are employed at greatly reduced wages. The governor will probably give the matter prompt attention and take steps to afford relief.

Engineers Submit Their Schedule.

OMAHA, Neb., March 22.—There was no meeting in the Union Pacific conference yesterday morning, but in the afternoon the engineers and the receiver met. The engineers submitted a schedule they desired to have adopted. Little progress was made. The telegraphers are still in session with Superintendent Kirby, and expect by hard work to finish this week.

FANSFAR EIL.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR THE GAZETTE.

SPECIAL ISSUE OF SATURDAY
CAUGHT THE STATE.

"Such Papers Make a Town Talked About," Says the Ashland Press—Kind Words From the Pens of Many Wisconsin Editors Cause Us to Blush.

Milwaukee Sentinel—The Appleton Post was fairly spangled with the greenest of shamrocks on St. Patrick's day. The Crescent, too, recognized the anniversary by dressing its leading in green. Greener than all was The Janesville Gazette, which was printed entirely from ink of that color, a sixteen-page edition at that, which shows not only the enterprise of The Gazette but also shows that the people of Janesville appreciate the value to the city of having so good a newspaper.

Makes the City Talked About.

Ashland Press—The St. Patrick's day edition of the Janesville Daily Gazette takes the shillalah. It is a sixteen page edition bristling with bright and attractive advertisements. In brief, it was a corker and Janesville, ought to feel proud of the Gazette. It is the best local daily in the state outside of Milwaukee. It is those kind of papers that makes a city talked about.

Racine Journal—The Janesville Gazette, of Saturday, appeared printed in striking green ink, and wearing a substantial air of prosperity due to the energy due in the special issue.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin—The Janesville Gazette celebrated St. Patrick's day by appearing in a dress of green. The Appleton Post appeared with shamrocks spotted all over the paper.

Madison Journal—The Janesville Daily Gazette of Saturday was a sixteen-page paper which would have reflected credit upon a city of triple population of the Rock county capital. The edition was printed in green ink and the enterprise may be accepted in evidence that there are no snakes in Janesville and no flies on The Gazette editors.

La Crosse Chronicle—The Janesville Daily Gazette of March 17, was an edition of sixteen pages, well filled with stories and sketches appropriate to the occasion, and with advertising patronage enough to make it profitable.

Fond du Lac Journal—Gay and jaunty were some of our exchanges on St. Patrick's day. Full of wisdom and business was the Janesville Gazette. The Gazette made St. Patrick's day the occasion for publishing a sixteen-page paper.

Kenosha Gazette—A number of our exchanges, notably the Janesville Gazette, came to us with their Saturday edition printed in green ink.

Evansville Tribune—The Janesville Gazette issued a green edition on Saturday in commemoration of St. Patrick's day and it was a most commendable undertaking.

Milton Telephone—The Janesville Daily Gazette was printed in green ink last Saturday, and issued an extra large edition. It was a very creditable production, and reflected great credit on that enterprising and up-to-the-times firm.

SANSPAREIL.

HIS THIRST CHEAP BUT AMPLE.
Young Hungerford Accused of Being a Spendthrift By His Relatives.

No thirst can compare with the Orfordville thirst. It has furnished a number of intricate cases for the municipal court to solve and still the people out that way are not satisfied. Judge Sale is now trying to decide whether a thirsty young man out there is a spendthrift. All day long two attorneys questioned and cross questioned witnesses without arriving at the end. Hungerford is the name of the youth. While the witnesses testified that they had frequently seen him drink, it was when other parties treated him, and they had not seen him spend money.

MRS. HARRIET REQUA'S POEMS.

What Good Judges Say of the Volumes She Has Published.

Rev. Dr. Fawcett, late pastor of the First M. E. church, Chicago, Ill.—"The poems are beautiful! beautiful! beautiful!"

Frances E. Willard—Everything is pure and elevating. None can read but to be made better.
Ella Wheeler Wilcox—The poems are very beautiful indeed. Christian people everywhere ought to possess the book. A Christian library would be incomplete without this volume of lovely poems.

The Independent, New York—The ideas in this volume are always conveyed in a limpid style—presenting a certain lofty stream that charms the ear while the soul is elevated by the sympathetic and often majestic turn of thought.

Chicago Inter-Ocean, Chicago, Ill.—They have depth of thought, pathos, and are pure and elevating in sentiment. They are of marked literary excellence and charming in their musical rhythm.

The books can be purchased at Sutherland's book store.

SEATS ON SALE FOR MANSFIELD

There Should Be a Full House On Saturday Evening.

Seats are now on sale for Richard Mansfield's Saturday engagement. A liberal attendance is promised. "Beau Brummell" will afford a vivid illustration of Mr. Mansfield's creative skill. It is a wonderful embodiment of character. The play has all the brilliancy and sparkle of the old comedies. Its humor is delicious, and there is a touch of pathos in the last act, which is most pathetic.

Mr. Mansfield will be supported by Miss Beatrice Cameon. The quaint and picturesque costuming and scenic effects will be introduced.

PAYS TO TELL OF A GOOD THING

That Is All That Advertising Ever Can Do For the Merchant.

There is nothing mysterious about advertising. It is an exact science. You are simply telling people where they can get certain needed things. That's all there is of it. If you can tell them about something they want, or ought to want—if you have a good thing to offer—advertising will sell it. Most any sort of advertising is useful, but newspaper advertising is not only the best, but it costs less than any other kind—service considered. You can get more circulation—talk to more people—for less money, in a newspaper, than any other way. Figure it out and see.

ACCORDING TO JERE MURPHY

Congressman Breckenridge would make first-class material for a Kentucky feud to work upon.

We agree with The Milwaukee News that Governor Peck is in some respects a better man than Governor Waite; but Governor Peck is not such a funny man as Governor Waite.

The saloon business must be among the reviving industries in Chicago, where out of thirty democratic nominees for aldermen only nine grog-sellers accepted the call to public service.

By the census of 1890 the wealth of Wisconsin aggregates $1,833,308,523. The administration organs doubtless have this fact in mind when they insist that the attempt of the state officers to steal $65,000 through the roster job didn't amount to much.—Madison Journal.

WE GIVE A PATTERN FOR A COUPON.

DO YOU WANT THE YORKE
SKIRT.

You Can Get It By Taking Advantage of the Gazette's Pattern Offer—A Chance For the Ladies to Clip Coupons—Notice the Details.

During these hard times all the ladies are doing their own dressmaking.

Of course they are.

Hence the popularity of the Gazette's pattern scheme.

The first pattern was described last night. It was the Kominsky blouse. Now, the skirt that goes with that is the Yorke and the two are illustrated in combination. The Yorke is a very popular style of skirt, cut with an apron front, a gore on each side, and a full straight breadth at the back. It is appropriate for all classes of goods, and may be left plain or trimmed in any desired style. Skirts of silk and woolen materials are usually lined; the use of a stiff facing is a matter of individual fancy. To give the latest touch, two elastic bands should be placed across the inside of the back breadth, one about six inches below the belt, and the other ten inches, to which the fullness can be tacked to make it full in regular flutes. These bands are not to draw the skirt back, and their length must be regulated by the size of the figure.

Half of the pattern is given in three pieces: Front, side gore, and half of

THE ROSTER ROOSTERS ROASTED

The Beloit Free Press Press Comments In a Biting Manner.

Editor Ingersoll of the Beloit Free Press has been pretty hard on the roster roosters all the time, but an editorial published yesterday is the most pungent of the lot. He says:

"How these democratic editors do pipe up there bazoos over the roster matter, now that the court, who is Judge Siebecker, has granted the non-suit! How they glorify Joe Doe and little man Clarence! How they chuck mud all over republican editors! How they roll over and over in their mad delight! But—they don't tell why the non-suit was granted. Oh, no! That wouldn't be in accord with their style! Telling the truth would be worse than blood-poisoning to them. Truth is altogether too rich for their blood. Why was the non-suit granted by Judge Siebecker? Why, upon the ground that if the defendants, Joe Doe, Clarence Clark and Gov. Peck were parties to a conspiracy to rob the state, the evidence seemed to show that the plaintiffs were parties to the same conspiracy! The fact of conspiracy was proven plainly enough, and Judge Siebecker didn't propose some of the conspirators should get out of the scrap by jumping on the necks of the other conspirators. Joe Doe, Clarence Clark, et al, should be everlastingly grateful to Judge Siebecker for taking the part of the under dogs in the fight. However, as the whole lot of them, from Clarence Clark up to Governor Peck and the umpire, Judge Siebecker, are democrats and as they didn't succeed in their attempt to beat the state out of the rice lump of money they saw with their mind's eye, republicans and honest men generally can for the present rest very well satisfied with a judicial decision which merely forbids conspirators to bring suit to recover against their co-conspirators. Big thing, such a decision, for those great democratic luminaries. It's simply pleading the baby act. 'Well, if we are thieves, so are you!'"

Aluminum is being used regularly by many of the largest steel companies in the country, according to Capt. A. E. Hunt of Pittsburgh. "It is added to the steel in proportions from a half to several pounds to the ton of steel, the purpose of the addition being largely to prevent the retention of the occluded glass in the steel and give thereby the production of solid ingots. Aluminum seems also to give extra fluidity to the metal, which results in clearer and sounder steel castings."

BASEBALL GENERALS ARE VERY SCARCE.

SOME FIELD MARSHALS OF
THE BIG LEAGUE.

Old Man Anson Still Maintains the Leadership—Patsy Tebeau Thought to Be the Coming Man—Other Great Headworkers of the Game.

THE DIFFICULTY
Manager Irwin of the Philadelphia
club has had in selecting from his list of players a man suitable to fill the position of captain
of his team shows
how very few players there are who are capable of filling the important position satisfactorily. A good captain is as necessary, if not more so, to the success of a team than a good manager. The latter looks after the general welfare of the players off the field and sits on the bench with them at times. But the manager on the bench is more or less a bluff, and the head work and playing of fine points of the game eventually devolve upon the captain.

A manager can, of course, command his players to sacrifice at certain times when the stage of the game demands it and can "shake up" his men when they prefer the bench to the coaching lines, but it is the captain whose head work generally does the business, and a team with a sharp, shrewd, hustling captain will in the end win more games for his team than will the manager.

Probably Capt. Anson combines as many of the qualities for both as any one in the business. The "old man" has the advantage of nearly twenty consecutive years' service, but it is doubtful, even with his experience, if his work of the past few years has excelled that done by him in his earlier days as a manager. Then he was fortunate in having players of marked and uniform ability and ones that even he could scarcely give points to. And yet with such players as "Ed" Williamson, the "dandy" of them all, "King" Kelly, Burns, Pfeffer and Flint, the "old man" was prominent in such fast company, and his individuality was just as prominent in his team of champions as in his present team. It is just the same
strong individuality
that has made Anson so successful. He is always a prominent figure
in every game, and is as popular with lovers of the game throughout the country now as he was in the height of his prosperity and ability. His players always respected him.

A captain to hold the obedient respect of his players must be their equal surely in playing ability. To be their superior in that respect is an added advantage. A ball player is the most sensitive of creatures to public approval or disapprobation. He will strut around with his chest out and pick out his friends to converse with when things are going his way, and he is wafted to the top wave of popularity by the approving shouts of thousands of spectators for a winning hit or a brilliant bit of fielding display. At such a time, too, he feels as if it would be lowering his dignity to abject depths to listen to his captain's orders too closely. In fact, he knows it all himself. A home run at a critical stage has ruined many a ball player with a normal cranium development. The swelling of that important part of his anatomy has been often too abrupt, and looking for nothing but home runs thereafter, he often lost the ability to get anything else, even his salary.

At other times not so fortunate the player would make errors in profession, then strike out several times and the assembled cranks would be just as enthusiastic in yelling, "You're rotten!"
"Get a balloon!" as before they were to laud him to the skies. In these cases he is in no hurry to dress and parade himself before the admiring, lingering spectators. On the contrary he takes plunge after plunge
into the tank, as if
to purge himself
of the "Jonahism"
which he imagines
encompasses him.
He peeks cautiously
and timidly out of
the dressing room,
and as the last
spectator passes CAPT. DONOVAN, out the gate he ventures out and goes by the back streets to his home, "None so poor as to do him honor."

If it is the captain of the team who meets with this last unfortunate experience, what can his feelings be the next day he takes his place on the field in charge of his team? He feels sheepish and mean, with no ambition to direct or order his men. If he did so, some individual who had made the home run the day before would possibly look at some of his fellows and say: "What do you think of that guy?"
He had better learn how to play himself before dictating to me." It was just this reason of not being equal or superior to their own men that made Joe Quinn of St. Louis, Allen of Philadelphia and O'Rourke of Washington unsuccessful as captains. It is not probable that either will act in that capacity again this season. The most successful captains were those like Ward, Nash, Tebeau, Anson and Donovan, who by their own ability as players derived the confidence with which to direct their fellows. No poor player will ever make a successful captain.

He may have a good head for it all that, but actions, not ideas, count.

John M. Ward makes a good captain for the reason that he can perform and tries for everything he expects and orders his men to do. He knows how the game should be played to obtain the best results. He is quick to grasp a point and quick to execute. He makes error and would be no good if he didn't. He tries for everything.
John has a disposition, perhaps, to find fault a little too quickly with his men for errors, and at times is too much depressed by hard luck, which has a corresponding effect on his men, and he sometimes aggravates an umpire more than he should for his team's best interests, but in the main the Giants' captain is all right, and we wouldn't exchange him for any player in the profession. He will have a different team to direct this year than last, and if he doesn't land them one,
two, three, we will eat crow and call it turkey.

"Billy" Nash of the Bostons has made a great success as captain. He is somewhat modest and retiring in his disposition, as is his manager, Selee. He is as game as a pebble, however, and is never "left" on the points of the game. He can argue a point with an umpire, too, but is usually forced into any decided kicks he makes by those other two captains of the Bostons, Duffy and McCarthy. Duffy has the faculty, or he thinks he has, of seeing a ball cut the plate, standing at an angle in deep outfield better than the umpire standing directly behind the plate. It is a most valuable trait, but unfortunate for Mr. Duffy at times.
Duffy would make a model spectator.
There are any quantity of them who can and do decide strikes and balls from the stands, behind first and third bases, in their minds.

Oliver "Patsy" Tebeau of Cleveland
has a fiery, "Kerry Patch" disposition, which developed mountainous kicking propensities last year. He is a fighter clear through and works for his team and victory like the Irishman he is.
He has many admirers for just these qualities among New Yorkers.

LUCILLE SAUNDERS.
One of the Bright Stars of the American Operatic Stage.

Lucille Saunders, the singer, was born in Hartford, Conn. Ten years ago she went to Paris, France, to receive vocal instruction, and remained for three years under the tuition of the celebrated teacher, Mme. de la Grange. Having completed her studies she went to London, England, where she made her first appearance at one of the promenade concerts at Covent Garden theater, where she met with great success, and where she continued for a time to appear. Through the kindness of Mrs. Ronalds, a well-known London society leader, who gave her valuable introductions, Miss Saunders devoted herself for the following three seasons to drawing room singing and to concerts, becoming celebrated for her rendition of English and French songs. She was subsequently secured as principal contralto

by the Carl Rosa Grand Opera company, and appeared in all the leading contralto roles in the extensive repertory of that company, in all of which she achieved great success. She has also appeared in English and Italian opera, under the management of Sir Augustus Harris, at Covent Garden and Drury Lane theaters, London. She is now engaged with the Bostonians, alternating in the principal contralto roles with Jessie Bartlett Davis.

Some three hundred and odd cats are maintained by the United States government, the cost of their support being carried as a regular item on the accounts of the postoffice department.
These cats are distributed among about fifty postoffices, and their duty is to keep rats and mice from eating and destroying postal matter and canvas mailsacks. Their work is of the utmost importance wherever large quantities of mail are collected, as, for example, at the New York postoffice, where from 2,000 to 3,000 bags of mail matter are commonly stored away in the basement. Formerly great damage was done by the mischievous rodents, which chewed holes in the sacks and thought nothing of boring clear through bags of letters in a night.
Troubles of this sort no longer occur
since the official pussies keep watch.
Each of the postmasters in the larger cities is allowed from $8 to $10 a year for the keep of his feline staff, sending his estimate for "cat meat" to Washington at the beginning of each quar-

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1594—Paris opened its gates to Henry IV.
1596—Sir Anthony Vandike, famous painter, born; died 1641.
1664—Cession of New Netherlands to the Duke of York by Charles II of England.
1820—Duel at Bladensburg, Md., between Commodore Barron and Decatur; both wounded, the latter mortally.
1822—Rosa Bonheur, artist, born in Paris.
1832—Goethe, the poet, died at Weimar; born at Frankfurt-on-the-Main 1749.
1873—Great fire in Hong-Kong; 44 acres burned over and 5,000 people homeless.
1875—The Count de Jarnac, novelist and French minister to England, died in London.
1889—Stanley Matthews, justice of the supreme court, died at Washington; born 1821.
1892—Dr. David Hayes Agnew, noted surgeon and emeritus professor at University of Pennsylvania, died.

Candidate August Lutz is telling folks that he gained ample knowledge of road building in the old country. Some of the property owners down on South Cherry street have a knowledge of this, and remember well that extreme measures were necessary not long ago to prevent Ald. Lutz from ruining their property by his expert street work.

People who discuss the street commissionership must bear one point in mind, that the street commissioner can act only in accordance with orders adopted by the common council. He has no power to screen gravel, even, but must repair streets as ordered. The common council, and not the street commissioner, is responsible for the condition of the public streets.

The stampede of young men to the republican ranks indicates that four wards will be carried by the republicans. Let the work begun under such cheering conditions continue until not only the city but the state and nation are reclaimed and given the benefit of republican policy.

It isn't hard to see why the city treasury is empty. The last democratic legislature so amended the license law that ten thousand dollars was taken from the city treasury and no provision was made to replace the amount. The general fund is short just that amount in consequence.

AUTUMN LEAVES.

[HARRIET WARNER REQUA.]

Falling, falling,
Through the misty air from cloud-land, like bright blossoms under feet,
'Mong the old, worn grasses lying, and the moisture of the street.
Falling from the heights of glory, where the sunset splendours are;
Caught and held for days together in those brown arms' witching snare.

Falling, falling,
Flames of crimson, royal-purple, ashen-grey
and yellow-gold;
Soon to lie extinguished, sodden, pinioned to
the frosty mould,
Like the love-lit hearts that ever true, tho' unrequited, prove
So they burn themselves to ashes with the fire of their own love.

Falling, falling,
And they measure in their passing days and
years forever fled;
Once again the year grows mellow, soon to drop down the year and meadow,
Years that bud and bloom, and wither, are ye fairest when is passed
All the heartache of your living to the passion Death at last?

Falling, falling,
Years of life, O do ye gather into crystal cells the grain
From the clay wherein ye struggle, from the sunshine, from the rain?
When the frost-kiss smiles with terror,
Clinging where love tendrils twine,
Then do common things turn golden, prisoned
dew-drops into wine?

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S HERO.

Col. Wm. Sillowaye, Whom Secretary Stanton Called the Greatest Hero of the War, Cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy.

There never was a time when so many of our great and prominent persons have been cured by one and the same remedy, as have been reported in the papers of late, cured by that wonderful medical discovery Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy.

Hon. Ex-Speaker Charles J. Norcross of the Massachusetts Senate and House of Representatives has been cured by this remarkable medicine, and now we report the extraordinary cure of the illustrious Col. Wm. A. H. Sillowaye, one of the most noted officers of the war, of whom Secretary Stanton and Secretary Welles said in conference with President Lincoln: "Colonel Sillowaye saved President Lincoln's life, and we consider him as great a hero as any in the service."

COL. WM. A. H. SILLOWAYE.

Colonel Sillowaye resides at 8 Pine street, Boston, Mass., where in an interview with him he talked very interestingly: "On the 19th of April, 1861 I enlisted in the army of the north. I weighed 162 pounds. After serving four years and eight months in the army and navy, and suffering from wounds and rheumatism, I was discharged. I weighed the day I was discharged 169 pounds. Every year I had attacks of nervous prostration; shortness of breath and loss of appetite were not the least of my misfortunes. I tried numberless things. Nothing did me any good.

While employed in Boston I was compelled to resign my position on account of ill-health. I consulted several eminent physicians, and took their medicines. No use—I grew worse day after day. They told me I could not live. I could not walk alone in the street without falling or clinging to the railings. At times I would shake and twitch. Had spells of falling down in the office and on the street.

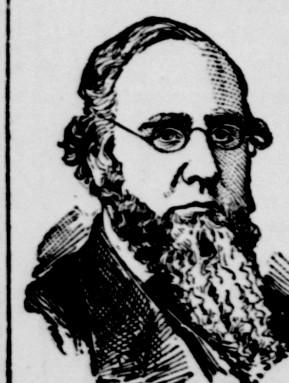

"In the house I had to lie down or drop down; several times I believed I was at death's door. I had been commander of three different G. A. R. Posts, and my comrades advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I bought a bottle and when I had taken two thirds of it began to improve.

"I kept on taking it, improving all the time. I now weigh 130 pounds and feel like my old self again. You can put it in your paper that I attributed my good health to nothing but Dr. Greene's Nervura. I am perfectly satisfied that it saved my life. I am 75 years of age, but, as you can see for yourself, I am as active as a man of 40 and can do a good day's work, as people here well know. My friends in Boston, New York and other places are surprised at my recovery. Indeed I am surprised myself to be so well. I advise anybody afflicted to buy Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy at once."

Such an astonishing cure as this in so prominent a personage as Colonel Sillowaye, the personal friend of the president of the United States, Secretary Stanton and Secretary Welles, of President Lincoln's cabinet, is the highest and strongest recommendation which anybody could possibly have.

It is a fact that this wonderful medicine is doing more good all over the land than any other known remedy. Everybody who has used it speaks in the highest terms of it. It is strengthening the weak, building up broken-down constitutions and curing the sick and suffering everywhere.

Everybody requires a spring medicine and this is just what you need. Thousands of people, while not sick, are out of order, weak, nervous, run down or ailing in some way. Many people at this season well, wake mornings tired, with bad taste in the mouth, dull feeling head and without strength or energy to take hold of their work. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will cure all this. It will make you well. It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

SECRETARY STANTON do not eat or sleep

KNOWN OF ALL OBSERVERS.

Bride and Groom Unable to Say Why They Attracted Attention.

One stormy day recently a handsome carriage came dashing down Fifth avenue, New York, with a yard of white ribbon flying at the pole, says a correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Everybody paused long enough to take a second look at it, and everybody who did saw more white ribbon tied in the door handles. As it went by the cabmen congregated in front of the Fifth Avenue hotel turned and stared, and the gentleman loungers within rubbed their noses against the plate

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS TOLD OF MUSICAL STUDY.

Characteristics of Some of the Classic Writers Briefly Touched Upon By Prof. Layton and the Philosophy of Composition As Affecting Students Discussed.

Professor E. E. Layton gave the high school pupils a significant talk on music this morning. He began by insisting that music was not in any sense a mere amusement, but was at once a science and art.

"It is a useful discipline," he said, "and educational to a high degree, as it strengthens and purifies both the mental and moral powers. You know full well that all true and complete education embraces both the intellect and morals and without this our life is a failure. Music is also a beautiful and poetic tone-language, expressed in rhythms as symmetrical as the most finished word-poem. The language of music requires years of study before its subtle and delicate thought can be mastered, and assimilated, but it is well worth the effort and toil, for I need not remind you that the rich gold of intellectual and artistic accomplishment comes not except by earnest and consecrated brain-digging. The vast majority of our people have no clear perception of the high and important mission of music, and strange to say, they give their opinions in regard to the art with as much assurance as does the learned judge of jurisprudence upon the various phases of his professional work. One reason for this peculiar and lamentable state of affairs is found in the fact that the kind of music for which the people clamor is not of the grade which instructs, elevates and refines and they become befogged upon its important principles and are rendered impervious to all true art culture. They are like the little boy of dime novel proclivities who can see as much grace and beauty in a Lalla Rookh or Gray's Elegy as can a Fiji Islander. It is needless to say, therefore, that the aforesaid and present vast majority are utterly beyond musical reconstruction, and it is to you of the rising generation that we look for a higher understanding, estimate and appreciation of the transcendent worth of true art. Cultivate a taste for the true and good in all literature and art and avoid all shams as you would a pestilence. When in the name of Mozart and Handel will the people of this country consume in the blazing fires of a righteous indignation all bogus musicians and 'quacks'?"

In your cultivation of art-ideas and ideals, accept only that which upon high and acknowledged authority you know to be thoroughly reliable. You do not have to take an exhaustive course in the study of music in order to get some considerable degree of appreciation of the respectable and cultured class of music. I had an artist friend east (a talented painter of landscape) who, by careful cultivation of taste and appreciation, by listening with discriminative and receptive heart and mind to the beauties of true musical art and judicious criticism thereon, formed an accurate and delightful fund of general musical knowledge which was a source of great joy and comfort to him. And you all can do likewise. Read up the main point in musical history, biography and aesthetics and you will then take more interest in and listen with a better understanding to the works of the masters. In our city library you will find a helpful series of biography and history combined called the "Tone Masters" and you should all read this short and interesting series and learn something of the life and work of Bach, Handel, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, and Mendelssohn. Then there are more elaborate biographies than this series mentioned, also complete historical works of the art which you can read later on if you desire. In addition, as I have previously intimated, you must miss no opportunity to listen to the works of the masters and to get thoroughly familiar with their varied charms and graces. Remember that music has its Shakespeare, its Milton, its Wordsworth, its Longfellow, and the rising generation is expected to be as well informed along general and standard musical lines as upon the principal phases of literary art. Remember also that Bacon tells us there is no great work of beauty that has not some element of strangeness in its proportions. So do not be discouraged if at first your mind cannot grasp all the beauties which lie within the enchanted role of a musical masterpiece, but persevere in your art-culture, and in time music will become to you a delightful panorama of paradise, replete with the pure flowing springs of a Mendelssohn, the high and inspiring mountains of a Beethoven, the healthful and elevated plains of a Bach and the exquisitely fragrant flowers of a Chopin."

Selections from Göttschalk and Alberti followed the remarks and were warmly applauded.

The Ladies' Paradise.

Although it may be eminently true as the poet says that "in the spring the young girl's fancy gently turns to thoughts of love," it is still more true that in the spring the attention of all the feminine world is turned to thoughts of openings in the large millinery houses. Last night and to-day occurred the annual Easter opening of the immense millinery house of Mrs. Woodstock, the largest in Janesville.

From quite early in the evening until late at night and all day today the store was crowded with an eager mass of ladies who took advantage of the fine weather to come out and see what is in store for them the coming season.

And they saw what made them happy. From floor to ceiling, down the entire length of the two great rooms, and back again once more, were piled upon pile, the goods so dear to the feminine heart. The arrangement of the display both in the front windows and on the shelves and counters was artistic, pleasing to the eye and most effective as a means of exhibiting the stock on hand to the best advantage.

Everyone knows that if an attempt were to be made to particularize regarding every article, the mind would grow weary with the ceaseless repetition of expressions of praise and a whole page of this issue would be taken up with descriptions of things it were far better and more satisfactory to see than to read about.

Suffice it to say that Mrs. Woodstock's opening was one of the most satisfactory ever held in the city. Her new ladies' furnishing goods and dry goods department was the subject of much favorable comment, and the only disappointment was that the large line of crockery did not arrive in time to be put on display. It is here now and will be unpacked and placed in position to-morrow. You can see it Saturday in the basement. It is very handsome.

Mrs. Woodstock has made greater offers this spring than ever before and undoubtedly will be looked upon and known as the leading millinery and ladies' furnishing goods house in Janesville. Mrs. Woodstock will in a short time make another trip to the markets, at which time she will purchase more handsome millinery and ladies' furnishing goods. When she returns she will hold another opening, which will occur some time in April. It will be grander and better than this one.

PEOPLE IN PARTICULAR.

Instead of being worth $50,000,000, the Stanford estate in California foots up $17,700,000.

Paderewski's wife died after they had been married one year. He has one child, a son, of whom he is very fond.

It has been suggested in Boston that a chime of bells be hung in Bishop Phillips Brooks' Trinity church, which shall ring at curfew the carol written by him, "O, Little Town of Bethlehem."

Bret Harte, although past fifty and in poor health, is a very handsome man. His face retains an appearance of youth, while his hair is silver white. He has a slender figure and an erect and graceful carriage.

Among the most Americanized foreigners at the national capital are the Japanese minister and his wife, Mme. Satono, who recently held a coming-out tea for their niece, Miss Go Lo, in the most approved style.

The song of "Fair Harvard" was composed by Rev. Samuel Gillman in the room in the Fay house, at Cambridge, which is now occupied by the women students of Radcliffe college, as "the annex" in henceforth to be called.

Dr. Murray's arduous labors on the Philological society's great dictionary of the English language are not wholly unrelieved by numerous interruptions. After endeavoring fruitlessly to find out what the word "brean" means in one of R. L. Stevenson's poems, he wrote to Mr. Stevenson and was informed that "brean" was a misprint for "ocean."

On pleasant afternoons there may be seen walking on the streets in the northwestern section of the national capital an elderly gentleman. He moves slowly and his step is feeble; his shoulders are bent, and his hair is thin and gray. About his eyes and on his cheeks are blue marks that look as if they had been tattooed into the skin. The old gentleman is Rear Admiral John L. Worden, now on the retired list. He commanded the Monitor in her historic fight with the rebel ram, the Merrimac, a battle that revolutionized modern naval warfare. Rear Admiral Worden is now seventy-six years old.

FEMININITIES.

To relieve the pain of rheumatism rub the afflicted joint with kerosene. Good players of the harp are said to be the scarcest of all musical performers.

At the close of a conjugal jar. He—My dear, do you think I am generally ill-natured? She—No; I think you are particularly so!

To remove rust from kettles or other ironware, rub with kerosene oil and let them stand. Keep a day, then wash with hot water and soap.

The death of Hannah Dempsey, a domestic, at Marylebone, England, recently, was caused by blood-poisoning, the result of wearing dyed stockings.

Jack—I don't see why you keep me so long in suspense, Clara! Can't you say yes or no right out? Clara—Oh, you just wait until we're married, and you'll find I can speak out quick enough.

Miss Ellen Terry has been interviewed by the Boston reporters. One of them has found out that her opinion of progressive woman is "that she is more in danger of wearing out than rusting out."

Mrs. Peachblow—Why does your husband carry around such a tremendous amount of life insurance when he's in such perfect good health? Mrs. Flicker—Oh, just to tantalize me. Men are naturally cruel.

Returned Traveler.—I have often thought of that young Mr. Tease and how he used to torment Miss Auburn about her red hair. Did she ever get even with him? Old Friend.—Long ago! She married him.

There is about to be an exhibition of cats at Brussels. Nearly 200 grimalkins have already been entered. Among them are cats from Siam and the Isle of Man, wild and Persian cats, and two of enormous dimensions.

The courtesy of remaining bareheaded while conversing with a woman is in general use on the continent of Europe, almost totally ignored in England, and practiced but fairly often in America, chiefly among Southerners.

DISCOVERY AND INVENTION.

Molds differ from bacteria, according to Prof. Frankland in their action, and produce an oxidation, or burning up instead of fermentation.

Scarcely a stream issues from the lower slopes of the Andes, either to the Amazon on the east of the Pacific or the west, the sands of which are not auriferous. The amount of gold in the country must be almost fabulous.

Dr. Zergler, a German scientist, is of the opinion that it will be possible to predict the weather by photographs of the sun far more accurately than by a study of the barometer. Circular or elliptical halos round the orb of day, he says, indicate violent storms, especially if the halos are dark in tint or of a large diameter. Lightning and magnetic disturbances may also be expected from these signs.

The Massachusetts state board of health concludes, from investigation of artificial ice, that artificial processes of freezing concentrate the impurities of the water in the inner core of the portion last frozen; that the impurities are least if distilled water is used; that the number of bacteria in artificial ice is insignificant under the prevailing methods of manufacture, and that the amount of zinc found in the ice is insufficient to cause injury from its use.

PLAYS AND HISTORY A MASTER'S THEME.

HENRY IRVING THINKS AMERICAN DRAMA SECURE.

Its Future Will Be Aglow with the Poetic Colors Supplied by Imagination and Patriotic Feeling—Our Heroes the Theme.

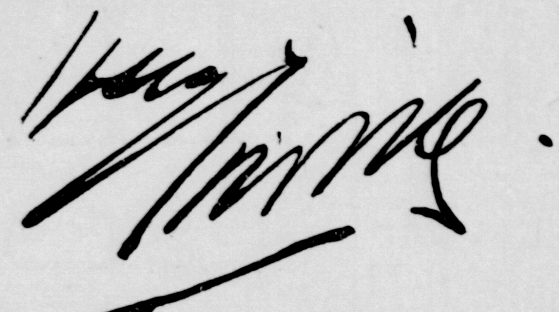

HAVE OFTEN been asked my opinion regarding the future of the American drama. This can only be to any one at present a matter of speculation, but I am quite sure that it will be a great one. The drama of young England was told by Shakespeare some hundreds of years after the events, and the drama of young America will also be told in some familiar fashion when some great national poet arises who will fitly tell it. The people of this country and the great events in their history during the past century will be eminently suitable for dramatic treatment when the efflux of time puts them in proper historical perspective. They will stand out nobly against the background of the past, outlined in facts and aglow with the poetic color supplied by imagination and patriotic feeling. Things which are to us almost commonplace will be softened and elevated by time so that the great men and the stirring times among which we ourselves have lived will appear at their historic worth.

What in history, for instance, is more striking than Grant coming from the obscurity of a little farm to fight the greatest battles of the greatest

IRVING AS THOMAS A'BECKET. What war that the world has seen? What is more noble in the past than Lincoln's progress from the plow tail to the acknowledged master of the western world, where every one loved and trusted him? There have been no greater heroes among the stories of the world of old.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Wyoming Finds that It Has Saved the State from Poverty.

As you reprinted from the Omaha Bee an unfounded series of assertions claiming that woman suffrage has been a failure in that state, will you, as an act of justice, reprint the concurrent resolution which was passed in the Wyoming house of representatives just before the close of the last session? asks Lillian Devereux Blake of the New York Sun.

"Concurrent resolution—Be it resolved by the second legislature of the state of Wyoming, That the possession and exercise of suffrage by the women in Wyoming for the past quarter of a century has wrought no harm and has done great good in many ways; that it has largely aided in banishing crime, pauperism and vice from this state, and that without any violent or oppressive legislation; that it has secured peaceful and orderly elections, good government and a remarkable degree of civilization and public order; and we point with pride to the facts that after nearly twenty-five years of woman suffrage not one county in Wyoming has a poorhouse, that our jails are almost empty and crime, except that committed by strangers in the state, almost unknown; and as the result of experience we urge every civilized community on earth to enfranchise its women without delay.

"Resolved, That an authenticated copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the governor of the state to the legislature of every state and territory in this country, and to every legislative body in the world; and that we request the press throughout the civilized world to call the attention of their readers to these resolutions."

Silly Girls Stage-Struck.
"You can form no idea," said a well known theatrical agent the other day, "of the enormous number of ladies, often mere girls, who come to me for introduction to the stage. In the majority of cases they have never even acted at all; in others only at amateur performances, at which the praise of their friends inspired them with an ambition to appear upon the regular boards. All seem to think that for the payment of a certain sum they can be transformed into finished actresses and procure good paying engagements. It is a thorough mistake, of course; but it is by fostering this silly idea that so many bogus agents are enabled to mercilessly dupe the people who come to them for assistance."

THE DIAMOND.

Providence will get pitcher Wittrock of Louisville releases him.

William Stelberger of Detroit may be a Western League umpire.

W. C. Temple is now mentioned as the donor of the League trophy cup.

Harry Sage will manage the Rock Island club of the new Western association.

"Link" Lowe, Boston's second baseman, will coach the Lehigh University baseball nine.

Try It.

For a lame back or a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottles for sale by Stearns & Baker.

Recognized the Symptoms.

"Who has No. 23?" asked the hotel clerk.

"Mr. Hayseed," replied the boy.

"That accounts for it," said the clerk. "He has just sent down word that he's got a bad attack of asthma and wants a doctor. Run up and turn off the gas."—Puck.

Convincing.

Mrs. Cobwiger—So the doctor no longer laughs at the idea that your daughter has the whooping-cough. What brought him around to your way of thinking?

Mrs. Pentwazel—He caught it from her himself.—Judge.

His Thoughts.

Auntie—A penny for your thoughts. Little Nephew—I was thinking that if I kept real quiet, and pretended to be thinking, you'd wonder what I was thinking about, and say just what you did. Gimme the penny.—Good News.

All Up with Him.

"You had a high old time in Europe?"

"Yes," replied the returned tourist. "I had. I was done up at Monte Carlo, held up in the Appenines and laid up in Rome."—Washington Star.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which affected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, I.

Life or Death?

It is of vital importance that it should be understood by persons whose kidneys are inactive that this condition of things is finally indicative of a state of the organs where life hangs in the balance. Bright's disease, diabetes, albuminuria are all diseases of a very obstinate character in their mature stage, and all have a fatal tendency. They often baffle the most practiced medical skill, and the most approved remedies of materia medica. But opposed at the outset—that is to say, when the kidneys begin to discharge their function ineffectively, with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the dangerous tendency is checked. Very useful, also, is this household medicine for those ailments of common occurrence, constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia and nervousness. It is a safeguard against malaria and averts chronic rheumatism.
